

Whether it's by foot, bike, or sharing the ride, getting around Redmond without a car has never been easier or more rewarding. Go Redmond will help you find all your commute options and earn rewards for leaving your car behind.

Your Redmond Commute Options:

Carpool: Ride to work or offer a ride in your car with other people who live and work near you.

- Create a free account on GoRedmond.com to use our "Ride Matching" tool
- Contact your matches to set up a carpool and split the cost of gas and get in the carpool lane to bypass traffic

Bus: Redmond has excellent transit service to help you get to work or to run errands. All local transit agencies use an ORCA bus pass or you can pay cash.

- Go Redmond offers a 1-month free ORCA bus pass to try riding the bus
- ORCA is accepted on Community Transit, Everett Transit, King County Metro Transit, Kitsap Transit, Pierce Transit, Sound Transit and Washington State Ferries
- You can find a bus route using Google Maps or the King County Metro Trip Planner

Vanpool: Vanpools are groups of 5 or more riders who use a van provided by a transit agency, like King County Metro, to share the ride to work.

- Gas and maintenance of the van are covered by your fare
- Create a free account on GoRedmond.com to use our "Ride Matching" tool to search for vanpools or to start a vanpool of your own
- The driver of the van can use the vehicle for some personal trips
- Go Redmond will help pay up to $50/month for the first year of a new rider's vanpool fares

Bike & Walk: Redmond has miles of bike-friendly streets and trails.

- Plan your route with our Redmond bike map
- Go Redmond offers resources and rewards to make walking and biking safe and fun

Telework and Compressed Work Week: Adjust your schedule to remove a commute trip or work from home.
